CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

STUDY SKILLS IN THE CONTENT AREA

For: Students entering Grade 9 Cost: $150
Session A: 4 days, Monday, June 25 – Thursday, June 28 Hours: 9:30 am – 1:00 pm
Session B: 4 days, Monday, July 23 – Thursday, July 26 Hours: 10:30 am – 2:00 pm

"Study Skills in the Content Area" is a four-day course which focuses on skills that students need in order to achieve enhanced success in a college preparatory high school program. This course will present not only general study and organization techniques that can be applied across all curriculum areas, but it will also focus on subject specific strategies in content areas such as two-column notes and effective graphic organizers. The program will also address effective reading strategies and tools that contemporary textbooks use to help students both within the text and on the internet. (Class size limited to 30 and rosters spots fill by date of registration.)
Instructor: Mr. Joe Lynch, Central Catholic High School.

SUCCESSFUL WRITING FOR HIGH SCHOOL

For: Students entering Grade 9 Cost: $150
Dates: 4 Days, Monday, July 9– Thursday, July 12 Hours: 8:00-11:30 am

"Writing for High School" focuses on both the content and process of writing effectively across the high school curriculum. This course covers the different kinds of writing assignments and situations that students will experience, efficient paragraph structure, the parts of the essay, and elements of style. Students will write in response to a series of questions and assignments designed to develop organization, coherence, and critical thinking as part of the writing process.
Instructor: Ms. Ashleigh Brown, Central Catholic High School

POWER WRITING I: A PRIMER FOR BETTER STUDY SKILLS THROUGH WRITING

For: Students entering Grades 10 and 11 Cost: $150
Dates: Monday, July 16 – Thursday, July 19 Hours: 8:00-11:30 am

"Power Writing I" works to develop stronger study skills through writing in the various academic modes. Students will compose both handwritten and typed pieces. From strengthening the content and organization of short answer paragraphs, to using writing-to-explore activities to enforce comprehension, to incorporating textual evidence with an awareness of MLA format, to a greater awareness of the writing process at large, students will work in class during this four-day workshop becoming better writers and thinkers. Designed for students who have struggled in acclimating to the demands of the high school classroom, the course seeks to create stronger students capable of success. Students should bring their iPads. A second section might be added pending demand. Class size limited. Instructor: Mrs. Alyssa Gowing, Central Catholic High School.

PRE-ALGEBRA POWER REVIEW

For: Students entering Grade 9 Cost: $150
Dates: Four days, Monday, July 23–Thursday, July 26 Hours: 8:00-11:30 am

"Pre-Algebra Power Review" is a four-day course which focuses on knowledge and content from previous math courses that will be important for success in Algebra I. This course will review and reinforce by practice: vocabulary related to mathematical concepts; operations on positive and negative whole numbers, decimals and fractions; plotted points in the coordinate plane; the concept of variables; order of operations and simplifying expressions.
Instructor: Mr. Sully Grella, Central Catholic High School
